Marrakech nightlife

Le Grand Café de la Poste

This colonial Art Deco bistro has a storied history as the favourite café of the dread Pasha Glaoui, and still attracts the city's movers and shakers to its shady terrace and palm-filled, 1930s interiors. While the food is a fine blend of French-Moroccan dishes, it's the 6-8pm happy hour that really draws the crowds. Then you can pair your peppery S de Siroua wine with a parade of free appetisers.
